Charles, I've been asked to help the Board finish up the History/Social Science adoption process and to work on smoothing some issues that have arisen with the Science adoption (specifically the selection of CRP/IMAP members). I know that you are on vacation as am I but these issues really can't wait until January.

As to the History adoption, I'd like you to be part of a meeting tentatively scheduled for January 6th at CDE. I expect to include in the meeting Sue Stickel, Tom Adams, myself, Stan, a representative of both Hindu groups, a representative of the Jewish group and possibly a Christian representative. I have communicated with the Catholics and several Christian reps about the issue you've raised on the death of Jesus. Obviously they agree with your concerns (as do I). I've shared their replacement sentence, which actually is in line with yours although it doesn't indicate that Jesus was confrontational.

I'd like to discuss this with you more indepth if you are available today (Thursday). My home number is (530) 620-6121 and cell is (916) 296-1046. Rae
